

Visitor attractions on the route.

Abbotsford House

Discover Abbotsford, the home of Sir Walter Scott; one of Scotland's most fascinating places. Explore the historic house and discover a treasure trove of intriguing objects and unusual artefacts which inspired Scott's greatest poems and novels. Learn about Scott's life and achievements in the exhibition, browse the gift shop, dine in style in the restaurant, or simply relax and unwind as you wander through the beautiful formal gardens and tranquil woodlands. 01896 752043. ### Melrose Abbey

Melrose Abbey founded by King David in 1136 is a magnificent ruin on a grand scale set within the stunning market town of Melrose. The Abbey is famous as the burial place of Robert the Bruce's heart and is open to visitors throughout the year. Visitors can also visit a small museum housing a display of artefacts found within the Abbey. 01896 822 562.

Galashiels

The first recorded reference to Galashiels was in 1124, though the town really flourished in the 19th century during a boom in the textile industry. The Braw Lads' Gathering in late June is a week of ceremonies and events, when a mounted procession rides through the town, commemorating the town's history and the granting of its charter in 1599. Old Gala House and Christopher Boyd Gallery is the historic home of the Lairds of Gala, and is open all year round. Cyclists can join the 90-mile Tweed Cycle Way on its route between Berwick and Biggar. The Southern Upland Way passes through the town, offering the strenuous challenge of a long distance walk.
