DID YOU KNOW?

Ochiltrees Café is also available for private hire, offering a relaxed and characterful setting within the grounds of Abbotsford.

From small gatherings to informal celebrations, our team can help create a warm and memorable experience, complete with great food and welcoming service.

A CAFÉ WITH A STORY

Nestled on the banks of the River Tweed, Abbotsford was the cherished home of Sir Walter Scott, one of Scotland's most celebrated writers and a pioneer of the historical novel.

Designed and built by Scott in the early 19th century, the house reflects his deep love of Scotland's history, landscape, and storytelling.

From its distinctive turrets and baronial architecture to its remarkable collections of books, artefacts, and curiosities, Abbotsford stands as a lasting tribute to creativity and imagination.

Today, Abbotsford remains a place of inspiration, welcoming visitors from around the world to explore its historic rooms, peaceful gardens, and scenic surroundings.

Ochiltree's Café is proud to be part of this special setting. Whether you're visiting after a tour of the house, enjoying a stroll through the grounds, or simply seeking a moment of rest, we invite you to relax and enjoy freshly prepared food, artisan bakes, and warm hospitality within these remarkable surroundings.
